Remembering Richard "Dick" Levy

Our hearts go out to Jackie, and her family, at this difficult time of loss. Jackie was Dick's loving and devoted wife for almost eleven years, and during those years Jackie and Dick were rarely separated. We share with Margo, Dick's cherished daughter and her husband Bobby, and their children and grandchildren, as they mourn the loss of their grandfather, and great grandfather. We, at Digby Baptist, also share deeply in the grief over the passing of this dear man who had, and will always have, a very special place in the hearts of all in our church family. Dick was tremendously involved in the Digby community, and far beyond, but his faith remained steadfast throughout his life, and his devotion to his Lord and his church never wavered. The service for Dick will be held at his church on Wednesday, April 19 at 1:00 pm.
