Sympathy

We in the Digby Baptist Church family share deeply with Cindy Longmire as she mourns the loss of her mother, Ellen Bell. Ellen passed away on Monday evening, July 10, in her Tideview Terrace home. It has been just a little over two years since Ellen's husband, Bernie, passed away on June 9, 2021. We who were privileged to know this dear couple will never forget their faithfulness to their Lord and to their church. Their memory will be forever cherished.

Welcome Rev. Randy and Heather Stanton

It is a great privilege to have Rev. Randy Stanton and his wife, Heather, visiting with us at Digby Baptist this morning. Randy comes to us as the Regional Representative for Canadian Baptist Ministries (CBM) for Atlantic Canada, a position he has held since September of 2015. Randy was born in Yarmouth, raised in Ontario, and met his wife in Thunder Bay. His studies have taken him from Winnipeg Bible College (Providence College) in Otterburne, Manitoba, to Acadia Divinity College, in Wolfville. He has served as lead pastor in four churches over a period of twenty-five years, Port Hawkesbury United Baptist, Calvary Baptist in St. John's Newfoundland/Labrador, First Baptist in Brandon, Manitoba, and the United Baptist Church in New Glasgow, NS. Over the years, Randy has enjoyed Short Term Mission Trips to Turkey, two to Bolivia, Lebanon, the Czech Republic, and most recently, the Philippines. Randy also served as a Canadian Forces Army Reserve Chaplain for twenty-seven years. In addition to all of this, Randy finds time, along with Heather, to enjoy motorcycling, photography, and travel.
