Keith and Pat Stevens

Keith and Pat Stevens will be moving on August 31 to Sweet's Corner, a community near Windsor, where they will be living with their niece and her family. Keith is continuing to suffer from the consequences of a broken bone in his neck, an injury sustained in a fall some months ago. Due to this very serious injury, he has been unable until recently, to attend services during the intervening weeks of recovery. Many will remember that Keith was once our caretaker at Digby Baptist. Please keep Keith and Pat in your prayers as they prepare for their move and pray for God's blessing on them in the days ahead in their new community.
