Christmas Celebration

Our Christmas Celebration in Word and Song was a lovely experience thanks to the dedication of so many. There were many small miracles along the way. Some who had not expected to be able to participate, found that they could be there, and what a difference that made in the service. The children were absolutely amazing with their delightful presentation. Many thanks to Richard Parry who researched the narration for the second part of the service, and attended to the sound system throughout, with great efficiency. How thankful we are for Anne, our gifted narrator, who kept everything flowing beautifully. What a joy it was to hear the Men's choir and the two choirs together, with excellent solos by Peter and Eddie. How lovely it was to hear our special duo, Bonnie and Linda, and our wonderful trio, Bonnie, Al, and Linda, singing much-loved Christmas songs. Margo's "O Holy Night" thrilled each listener at the close of the service. Then, as previously arranged, but not anticipated by most in attendance, Carol quietly made her way to the platform, touching our hearts as she sang the first verse of "Silent Night" in German. The service closed with everyone singing all three verses of "Silent Night." How thankful we are to our Heavenly Father for his goodness to us.
