Fellowship Time in the Hall

Fellowship Time

Everyone is invited to the Fellowship Time in the Hall, at the close of the service. This will provide a great opportunity for those in the church family to share with our guest musicians and other visitors who may have come to enjoy this special service this morning. There will be lots to eat - sandwiches, sweets, tea, and coffee, so don't be shy. Come and enjoy!

Once again, we extend a very warm welcome to this gospel singing group whose ministry we so very much enjoyed on August 27 of last year. This inspiring threesome, Connie Finigan-Igoe, and Al and Kathie Geauvreau, lead services most Sundays at their own regular place of worship, Hillgrove Baptist Church. This morning, it is a privilege to have them leading worship here at Digby Baptist. May this service be a blessing to each and every one in attendance. It would be wonderful if everyone could remain for the Fellowship Time.

Future Guest Speakers

Sunday Morning, March 3 - Rev. Dr. Anna Robbins, President of Acadia Divinity College

Sunday Morning, April 21 - Rev. Dr. Stuart Blythe, Dean of Acadia Divinity College and Professor of Preaching and Worship

African Heritage Service

Each year on a Sunday in February, we look forward, with great anticipation, to our African Heritage Celebration at Digby Baptist. Our 2024 service took place last Sunday, Feb.11, and will long be remembered as one of the best ever. The singing of African Spirituals by the congregation and church musicians was vibrant and uplifting. The unique children's story, the inspiration of Heather Parry, featuring Myra, Marjorie, and Cecil, held children and adults alike in rapt attention. The crowning glory of the celebration was Myra's outstanding presentation, 'Roots of Braids' prepared and presented with the expert assistance of Richard Parry. Myra, dressed in elegant African attire with her hair intricately braided into nine perfect cornrows, held everyone spellbound with her powerful message on the cultural significance of African hairstyles. On leaving the sanctuary at the close of the service, there would be very few who were not deeply touched by Myra's moving presentation.
