Recovering at Home

Margo's grandson, our dear little Mason, is recovering at home after badly spraining his ankle. In spite of his injury, he is still able to look after his chickens, and also managed to climb a ladder to help his dad with repairs on a roof. Please keep him in your prayers.

Sharon Cookson's Grandson

Please keep Sharon's grandson, Cody Burgess Smith in your prayers. He was hospitalized on March 28 after sustaining severe burns to his upper left side and face resulting from a grease fire at work. He has now been released from hospital and is receiving treatment at home. Cody lives in Cedar Rapids Iowa.

Next Sunday, April 14, at Digby Baptist Rev. Dr. Stuart Blythe

Rev. Dr. Stuart Blythe will be here at Digby Baptist next Sunday, April 14, as our guest speaker, rather than on Sunday, April 21, as previously indicated. Dr. Blythe joined the faculty of Acadia Divinity College in 2017 and occupies the John Gladstone Chair of Preaching and Worship. He also gives leadership as the Associate Dean responsible for the faculty, and he is also Dean of the Sarah Daley Nickerson Chapel. He brings to these roles a wealth of pastoral ministry and academic experience. Dr. Blythe and his wife, Susanne, are from Scotland and have two adult children, Stephen and Kim-Michal, still living there. For leisure, Stuart and Susanne both enjoy playing the bagpipes.

Welcome, Baby Charlotte

The long-awaited baby, little Charlotte, arrived on April 1, weighing 6lb 8oz. Coreen and Brian are the proud great-grandparents, and Cassidy and Alex are the proud parents. Cassidy is Coreen's granddaughter. We thank God for the safe arrival of this little one.
