This week we recognized National Indigenous Peoples Day in Canada on Friday, June 21st. Continue to pray for our Indigenous communities, for healing and reconciliation, and for steps toward unity and harmony. Pray for wisdom and humility as we continually seek to learn, grow, and walk in a good way with our Indigenous neighbours.

Postlude

Our Pastor

Pastor Alex flew to Ottawa on Thursday to join family and friends for the celebration of his father's retirement there this weekend. Many of us met Jim when he attended the June 9 morning service, the first Sunday for Alex to preach at Digby Baptist. Last weekend Alex's mother, Karen, was here for a visit, and some were able to meet her at that time. As mentioned earlier, Jim and Karen will return together for a longer visit later, in July.

Pastors Mario and Stephanie Borsato

Our special guest speakers today are husband-and-wife team Mario and Stephanie Borsato and we extend to them a very warm welcome. Mario and Stephanie are pastors at Eglise du Phare (Lighthouse Church) which holds services each Saturday night in the Little Brook Firehall beginning at 6:30. On their website, the Borsatos share that, more than anything, they want everyone to have the opportunity to encounter Jesus, and to get to know Him by His love, His kindness, His grace, and by His plan and purpose for every person. Through their ministry together, they share God's life-changing love which enables each one, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to truly know and follow Jesus. How thankful we are for their ministry among us today.
